October 1992

To my Salisbury Researcher Friends,

In an effort to maximize my limited time in Erie County, New York, in February, I decided to do a little research on the Salisburys of Western New York using the materials I have at home.

I really didn't expect to get so carried away with this project, but I hope it will help me spend my time there to my best advantage.

I'm enclosing a copy of this project for you; and if you have any ideas or information that I don't have I would love to hear from you. Although, I always enjoy hearing from you anyway.

My research time is so limited as I live on an Island near Vancouver Island, and it's really a big deal to even go to the Seattle Branch of the National Archives.

We are going to spend 8 days in SLC. We're leaving here on October 26, and we plan to return home by November 7. In mid-November, we're going to the Bay Area in California for doctor & family visits. I'll have time to do some census work at the Family History Library on the Mormon Temple grounds in Oakland.

Anyway, I'm really looking forward to doing on-site investigations in Erie County, New York, this February. It may even be possible to stop in Otsego County to look at deed records for the Salisburys who were in that area in the early 1800's.

Sincerely,

The Boston Transcript, December 17, 1923, Item 1303

James Salisbury, 176?

"1. Salisbury. Can anyone give me any information regarding James Salisbury, said to have come from England about 1786, and supposedly settled in Bennington, Vermont, or of his son Aaron Salisbury (m. Ann Roat about 1825) who lived near Angola, New York?

2. Roat. Can anyone give me any information regarding the Roat family, the members of which were: Elizabeth, b. 1793; Martin, b. 1795; Jane F., b. 1797; David, b. 1802; Ann, b. 1805, m. Aaron Salisbury; Mary, b. 1808; Gordon, b. 1811; Margaret, b. 1813; Thomas, b. 1818."

Curtis

Could Hannah Curtis have been a sister of James Salisbury?

? married? Hannah Curtis (nee Hannah Salisbury?)

Salisbury seems to me to be an unusual given name unless his mother's surname was Salisbury.

James Salisbury, b 1785, VT, my gr. gr. grandfather was enumerated with Daniel + Abigail 1850 Census.

James Salisbury
married Susan Curtis b. 1796, NY, married 1810, NY

Many land transactions occurred in Cass Co., MI, between these Curtises. It appeared as though Hannah was the mother.

There were many other Curtises in Cass Co., MI, during this time period.
